On line business ideas

The benefits of operating on line include: it's cheap and passive, operates 24 hours a day / 7 days a week, low stress and requires no special sales skills. For the detailed article featuring a range of options using existing websites - contact us.

Small businesses fear being the next target of bad financial advice

Small businesses fear they could be the next target of bad financial advice and predatory lending under a proposed low-regulation scheme for start-ups. The scheme, being considered could allow financial services start-ups to operate unlicensed for six months in the name of supporting innovation. Your competitors are going mobile - are you?

As more and more consumers begin to rely on their mobile devices for personal and business use, instead of a more traditional means like a desktop computer, the need for a mobile app is rapidly growing. With 2015 being dubbed the Year of the Mobile, small businesses without a mobile app planned for the future will continue to fall farther and farther behind. There's typically only one reason that is causing these businesses to continue to hold out: money. To learn more - contact us.

Thinking like a customer increases sales

Solo operators spend a lot of time thinking like business owners. To increase sales, however, you need to think more like the people you want to serve. To read the article describing five ways to increase sales - contact us.

What is 'Network Marketing' and 'Multi-Level Marketing'?

Network Marketing is easily one of the most misunderstood and misrepresented business models. Those involved in the Network Marketing Industry understand that there is low risk to joining a new Network Marketing company; however, because of the structure of a network marketing business, many people mistakenly believe that all multi level marketing companies (even the best) are illegal pyramid schemes. How to survive a business drought

Regardless of how long you have been in business, you are bound to experience a business drought at some time or another. If we could all have the multitude rushing in to purchase our product or service without ceasing, it would make business so much easier and, no doubt, cash flow a lot better. The fact is, slow periods are a part of business whether we like it or not. To read more - contact us

Five ways to get mall shoppers into your store

Rumors of the mall's demise have been greatly exaggerated. In fact, a recent study shows shoppers are spending more time at the mall than they have in years — not only to shop, but also for entertainment, dining out and socializing. Sure, we're about to enter the time of year when mall traffic is heaviest — back-to-school season and the winter holidays — but malls are enjoying consistent, solid traffic all year long. How can you take advantage of that traffic and attract more shoppers to your store? Here's what you need to know. To read the tips - contact us.
